Welcome To The North American Open Show

The 91 paintings in this exhibition were selected from 680 slides submitted by 320 artists from the United States and Canada.

Juror of Selection

Dean L. Mitchell, AWS, NWS

Noted for his spiritual quality of painting. Winner of numerous national awards including the Arts For The Parks bronze medal in 1988 and 1989. Residing in Overland Park, Kansas.

Juror of Awards

Diane E. Faxon, AWS

Featured in many art books including Barbara Nechis' Watercolor, The Creative Experience. A noted teacher of watercolor techniques residing in Stamford, Connecticut.

""Too many wonderful, difficult choices! Mr. Mitchell is to be complimented on his selection. This is an outstanding exhibit covering the limitless creativity of the participants. This exhibition is a celebration of the medium."

Home Cookin'

Joe Frassetta

"Exquisitely painted. The artist's use of values and color to project his central image of the figure is very forceful. The light draws the viewer in and there is a wonderful juxtaposition of shapes."

New England Watercolor Society Second Place Award — $800

Steamed In Maryland
Joseph J. Correale, Jr.

"Composition and use of color make this a compelling painting. The subject matter, centrally placed, is offset by the values, complimentary colors and subtle glazes."

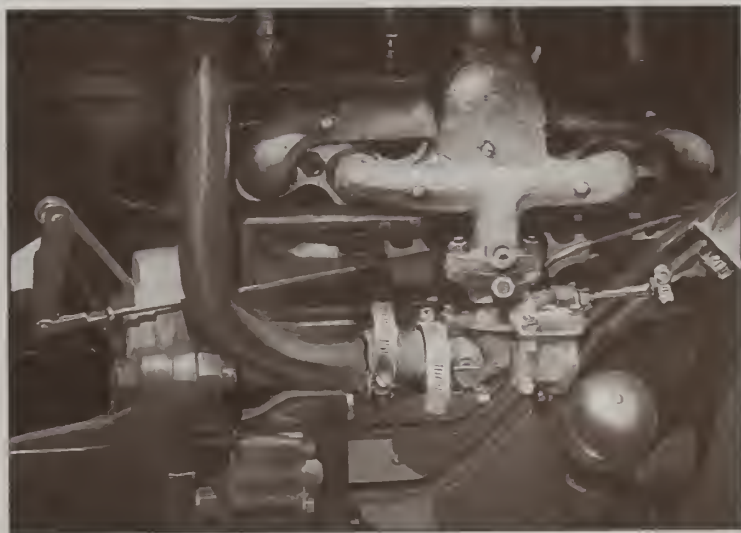

New England Watercolor Society Third Place Award — $500

Quest Series II

Doris Weiner

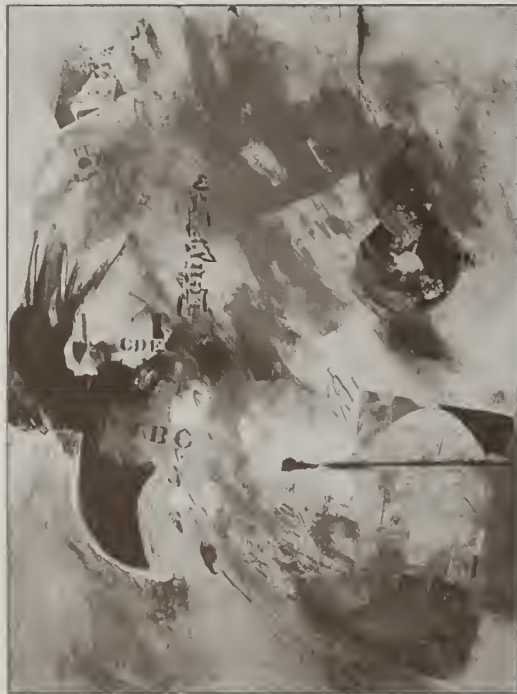

"This is an exciting painting. It explodes with wonderful color shapes and brushstrokes."

New England Watercolor Society Award of Distinction — $300

Red Engine, Suzanne McWhinnie

"This a very fresh watercolor with expert use of color values modified by subtle color shapes.."

New England Watercolor Society Award of Distinction — $300

*I.S. Series
Joan Dunkle*

"This is a wonderful strong use of the brushstrokes and textures set off by the crisp reality of the letters."

The Mary Marcy Rines Award for Outstanding Contemporary Painting — $300

Connections I, Anne D. Sullivan

"The composition is most successful — working from all viewpoints. The color and shapes in relation to each other, connected by line, is very strong."

*New England Watercolor Society
Award of Distinction — $300*

Tree Support, Edward Minchin

"The play of color, values and shapes create a fluidity and excitement with the paint."
